Archives and finds speak and prove

Lom is a town with significant history. The Thracians from the time of Herodotus called the settlement Artanes. Later the Romans built a castle and a road station here and called it Almus during the rule of emperor Tiberius .

3. Antiquity

4. The best years of Lom are after the Liberation of Ottoman rule

At that time the city was one of on the largest ports on the Danube River - an important agricultural, commercial and industrial center in Bulgaria. Large commercial companies exported wheat, salt, wood, textile to Europe through Port Lom. Everything imported from Europe to Bulgaria came through Port Lom - machines, hardware, lumber, gas, manufactured and colonial goods.

At the time the local rich people built extremely beautiful houses on both sides of the old main Dunavska Street . They were designed in "Late Secession" style, designed by Belgian, Austrian and German architects.

These buildings still amaze local people and the town guests with their beauty and elegance .
